VACATION TRIP

REV. C. H. SCOTT GOES EAST TO INVESTIGATE AND REPORT ON HUMAN WELFARE MOVEMENT

Rev. Charles H. Scott, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, who is leaving today to spend in the east the vacation granted him by the trustees, on Saturday released news concerning the special mission on which he will be engaged while away. While it will be a vacation he admits it will be a rather strenuous one although he expects to enjoy it and be benefited by the change.

He is being sent by a group of leaders who are interested in the human welfare movement in progress throughout the country who are co-operating to make an investigation of the whole field as far as it is possible to make a survey of what is being done by government agencies, by commercial and industrial concerns as well as by private enterprise and municipal action. He has been commissioned to make this investigation, which will specialize somewhat on provisions made by private and public corporations to give employees and workers generally an opportunity for physical training and development.

The principal centers he will visit will be Chicago, Detroit, Washington, New York and Boston. When he gets back a meeting will be called of those associated with him in the movement which will be held at the University of Southern California and at that time Mr. Scott will make a report of his survey of the movement in the east. This action has been taken with the object in view of determining whether there is any practical means of setting up a co-operative movement in the interest of human welfare on the Pacific Coast.

The aim of the promoters is a co-operative movement to carry on such work as is being done by the National Cash Register Company for its employees, by the Goodrich Tire Company which is now building a $500,000 club house for its workers, and by Henry Ford for the betterment of employees, etc. In many instances this work has been done from selfish motives to make employees more contented. What is now sought is to make such betterment agencies general and to establish them from altruistic motives rather than private gain in dollars and cents. A sane mind in a sound body and a contented mind is not likely to be a prey to Bolshevism or any other agency threatening the welfare of society. The Pacific Coast is making a bid for factories and world trade. This movement seeks to insure favorable conditions for workers which by raising the standard of life and health will incidentally protect society.

MRS. LAWSE'S MOTHER VERY LOW

Mrs. A. L. Lawse of 620 North Maryland, who recently went to Wash. Ind., in response to a telegram that her mother, Mrs. Wampler, was at the point of death writes that there is no hope. Several doctors have been consulted and all agree that Mrs. Wampler is dying of cancer of the bowels and that an operation could prolong her life for a very short time only, even if she came through it all right, which is doubtful, as she is in her 80th year.

WONDERFUL MACHINES

AUTOMATIC MANUFACTURE OF SIERRA BEVERAGES A FASCINATING SIGHT

After considerable delay of the sort that all manufacturers have to put up with when they enlarge their plants in these days of "shortage," the Henry-Brown Company's plant for the making of beverages on Wilson Ave. and Isabel St. is now operating quite satisfactorily. To insure the proper installation and adjustment of the machinery the manufacturers sent to Glendale from Cleveland, Ohio, to assist the firm a Mr. Paskins, an expert in that line. To the reporter who called to watch the process he explained some of the details and stated that the present plant is capable of turning out 73 bottles a minute, or 180 cases an hour of 24 bottles to a case, which would mean in an eight-hour day if the machines worked steadily 1440 cases or 34,560 bottles. He confided the fact that in spite of this capacity the firm is not able to keep up with the demand and is even now arranging to increase its floor space and add more machinery.

While the machine is practically automatic, attendants are necessary to see that there is no clogging of the traffic along the belts which carry the bottles to their various stations. (Continued on Page 4)

JURY SERVICE

D. E. MALLETT COMPLETES A TERM OF TEN WEEKS IN L. A. CRIMINAL COURT

D. E. Mallett, of 1313 East California avenue, has just completed quite a long period of service as a juror in the Los Angeles criminal court over which Judge Craig presides. He began the first of June and the panel under which he was drawn expired Friday night. The last case on which he was engaged was a burglary case which came up Friday afternoon. It took the jury until 9:45 p. m. to reach an agreement for two of the jurors did not interpret the evidence in the same way that their associates did, but were finally won over to the view of the majority. He happened to have been excused for a few days at the time the case of Harris, the bank robber, was called, so he was not on that jury. There were about thirty persons in the panel, of which fifty per cent. were women. Mr. Mallett praises them highly in this capacity, saying the majority made excellent jurors and showed good judgment. In the burglary case referred to, a woman was made foreman of the jury.

Mr. Mallett says he rather enjoyed the service as he got considerable experience of a sort he had never had before. He got acquainted with the judges and with a good many people from different parts of the county who were on the panel, with whom he had very pleasant relations.

MRS. SHATTUCK TO GO EAST

Mrs. Charles Shattuck, of 114 W. Broadway, expects to leave August 26th for a visit of six weeks to two months in Michigan. Her main objective will be Plymouth, Michigan, where she and Mr. Shattuck lived for more than twenty years and which is also the home of her mother, Mrs. Howlett. She will visit in Ypsilanti, Pontiac and many other towns of the state where she has friends. Her daughter, Miss Leone Shattuck, who is employed in the city library and who will be responsible for the housekeeping in the Shattuck home during her mother's absence, expects a strenuous time, but says she is going to have her father join the Boy Scouts so he can learn to cook and wash dishes.

KANSAS PICNIC SEPT. 13TH

Many queries have been heard recently about when the Kansas picnic is to be held. There are tens of thousands of Jayhawkers scattered all over Southern California, and a great many of them will want to attend the annual gathering, which is set for Saturday, Sept. 13th, in Sycamore Grove. A number of prizes are to be offered.

JUBILEE CHRISTIANS

PASTOR OF FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SAYS JUBILEE YEAR NOT IMPOSSIBLE

Rev. W. E. Edmonds preached Sunday morning on the theme, "Jubilee Christians," taking for his texts 1 Cor. 8, 9 and Galatians 5:1: "Take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak," and "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free."

Here are two important injunctions to be borne in mind by the Christian, "Take heed" and "Stand fast." No nation was ever more devoted to the idea of liberty than were the Jews, and since that people constituted a nation there has been no other country or people who talk so much about it and are more devoted to the idea of freedom than we here in America. But there are qualifications to the word "Liberty" and the kind that the Christian should strive for is indicated by the words found in St. John's gospel, "If the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed." With the Jews every seventh year was a "Jubilee year." When that year came around every debt was canceled, every slave was freed. It was something to look forward to, even for the most hopeless. You tell us today that the idea is impractical, but it was the law of God; it was His plan; dare we criticize it? With the Jew, liberty and religion harmonized; his patriotism was his religion; he recognized submission to God as the real liberty, without which all else was as "sounding brass and tinkling cymbal." Every Christian should be a Jubilee Christian. And why not? God is able to carry your burden; He is able to cancel your debts. With the proper Christian spirit, every year is a Jubilee Year. We are no more (Continued on Page 3)

WASHINGTON SILENT ON MEXICAN SITUATION

SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER AND STAFF CONFER OVER CAPTURE OF AMERICAN AVIATORS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Secretary of War Baker and the army officers now in conference with him have refused to make any statement in regard to action which may be taken by the United States on the acute stage of the Mexican situation which was reached when letters purporting to be from army aviators Lieutenants Paul H. Davis and Harold G. Peterson were received at military headquarters at Maria, Texas, Sunday announcing that they were being held for $15,000 ransom by bandits somewhere in Mexico and threatened with death unless the ransom should be paid. The two men had been missing for a week. Telegrams from El Paso state that the message is declared to be authentic by Col. George T. Langhorne, Commander of the Eighth Cavalry, and arrangements are being made to assemble the $15,000 in gold coin and send it over the border tomorrow to an agent of the bandits, as the date set by the bandits for the murder of the aviators was August 18th if the money was not forthcoming. Peterson and Davis belong to the Fort Bliss aviation corps and have been patrolling the border. It is supposed that they confused Conchos River, which flows into the Rio Grande near Presidio, Tex., with the Rio Grande, and followed the larger river into the interior of Mexico. Lieutenant Peterson, pilot of the plane, is 25 years old and is from Hutchinson, Minn. Lieut. Davis is a Strathmore, Cal., boy and is but 23 years of age.

EMPLOYMENT FOR SOLDIERS

(By United Press)

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 18.—Reconstruction problems, inauguration of public work to provide employment for returned soldiers, and various plans for state aid for war veterans will feature the annual Convention of Governors of States, which opened a six-day session here today. Most of the nation's state executives were in attendance.

Simon Bamberger, Utah's Governor, and Miles C. Riley, Governor of Wisconsin, have been in charge of arrangements for the convention which is so planned as to give the governors a trip through Yellowstone Park and trips to Utah points of interest.

Today's sessions are to be devoted to opening meetings, addresses of welcome by Governor Bamberger and Mayor Ferry, and responses by the visitors. An informal reception will be held tonight in the Tabernacle.

"TREASONABLE PROFITS"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—With the statement by Senator Kenyon that the American people refuse to stand for "treasonable profits," the Senate Agricultural Committee today began hearings on the packer regulation legislation.

POSTOFFICE SALES OF FOOD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The sale of millions of dollars' worth of army food began at more than 150,000 postoffices throughout the country today. The marketing job will be conducted through the parcels post and will end August 20th.

DALE HOME SOLD

BOUGHT BY MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE RANK, RETURNED MISSIONARIES FROM CHINA

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dale, of 361 West Salem street, have sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rank, missionaries, who have returned from China after a sojourn of fifteen years in the Celestial Kingdom. They and their two children are now visiting relatives in the east and will not return to take possession of the house until the first of October. Mr. and Mrs. Dale are therefore remaining to care for it until they can turn it over to the new owners, who, they say, are very interesting people. In the meanwhile the Dales will be looking for a new location either in Los Angeles or Hollywood. Mr. Dale operates a chain of groceries called "The Acme Stores" and his strenuous business obliges him to leave here at 6:30 a. m. Often he does not return until 7 p. m. and sometimes there are important evening meetings. For that reason he is seeking a residence which promises to make things easier for him. His main office is in the wholesale district just back of the Southern Pacific station. Mr. and Mrs. Dale like Glendale very much, are attached to their home here and very sorry to leave it.

DEATH OF MRS. BARBARA GROTE

Mrs. Barbara Grote, wife of William A. Grote, and mother of W. G. Grote, of 440 West Garfield avenue, died following an apoplectic seizure, Sunday night, August 17, 1919, at 11:30 o'clock. She was seventy years of age, was a native of Germany, and had been ailing for some time. Funeral services which are awaiting the arrival of a son in the east, will be in charge of the Scovern Company.

MRS. CHAPPIUS TO GO EAST

Mrs. A. J. Chappius of 606 East Acacia, unless she changes her present plans will leave Tuesday of next week, August 26th, for the east. She is a member of the Woman's Relief Corps and will be able to take advantage of the very low round-trip rates made for the annual encampment of the national organization of the G. A. R. at Columbus, Ohio. She will visit three brothers in St. Louis whom she has not seen for fifteen years, and will be accompanied by her little daughter, Dorothy.

DR. MOSHER AND WIFE EN ROUTE TO AFRICA

Dr. Geo. Mosher and wife of Pomona started from Montreal, Canada, Saturday, Aug. 9th, after waiting five or six weeks for a ship. They were bound for London, where they will take ship for Bolengi, Africa, and will go later to Monieka, a nearby mission station. Dr. Mosher is a son of Mrs. S. J. Mosher and brother of Mrs. J. F. McBryde and Miss Ella Mosher, of Glendale. He is a dentist and has a good knowledge of surgery, so he will be a valued aid to the missionaries already there, among whom is Mrs. Evelyn Utter Pearson, a former Glendale resident. Dr. Mosher was a Glendale resident years ago, also.

BRINGS HOME A BRIDE

I. A. Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Pearson of 644 East Harvard street, with his bride, arrived from St. Louis Saturday. During their stay here they will be guests of his parents. Mr. Pearson, like his brother Guy, is associated with the Arthur Miller Distributing Company, which handles fruit, especially cantaloupes. Mrs. Pearson will travel with him for a time.

MRS. CAMMACK WED

FORMER CHOIR LEADER IN METHODIST CHURCH IS IOWA BRIDE

The Oskaloosa, Iowa, Herald of recent date contains the following notice of the marriage of Mrs. Leora Cammack, a former resident of Glendale and prominent in musical and Methodist Church circles: "Frank T. Nash and Mrs. Leora Cammack, both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Sawyer, 311 North Market street, this Wednesday morning, August 6, 1919, at 10 o'clock, Rev. A. McFerran, of Mt. Pleasant, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Oskaloosa, officiating. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present. Guests were received by the bride and groom and the affair was informal. The bride was prettily dressed in an Oxford gray traveling suit. Mrs. Nash has been in the city the past three years and was choir leader at the Presbyterian Church and has many friends in the city. Mr. Nash is a well-known attorney of Oskaloosa. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served which was very dainty and nice. The bride and groom left for Colorado on their honeymoon and will be at home to their many friends after September 1st. Their many friends send them best wishes and congratulations."

YEOMEN PICNIC

The trolley strike brought disappointment to many members of the Yeomen Lodge for Saturday the annual picnic of the order was held at Redondo and many Glendale members were unable to attend because they had no means of transportation. Heretofore the Glendale organization has captured the banner every year since the picnic was inaugurated, a banner which is awarded for the largest percentage of attendance. This time it went to the Puente Lodge and was a beautiful American flag 5x8. Glendale Yeomen have also made a very good record in the competitive events of the amusement program, and this year Don Danner captured the second prize offered in the footrace (an order for a good hat), and he and Joseph Eyraud won the second prize in the three-legged race. There was a tug of war between sailors and yeomen and the yeomen won. About 300 attended, of which twelve to fifteen came from Glendale. There was dancing in the afternoon and also in the evening and those who succeeded in getting to Redondo report a very nice time.

GLENDALE ELKS' BALL TEAM MAKES CREDITABLE SHOWING AGAINST SANTA BARBARA 9

Glendale Elks are all puffed up over the splendid game which was played by the lodge team at Pasadena yesterday against the crack Santa Barbara team which is largely composed of men who play professional ball and which is considered the best ball team on the coast. Two wild throws boosted the Santa Barbara score in the first inning, but after that Glendale held its own and made the Santa Barbara boys hustle. So hard were they pressed they found it expedient to change pitchers in the middle of the game. The score was 3 to 5 in favor of Santa Barbara and it was a "defeat with honor" for the home boys, who had expected to be beaten to a frazzle. George Hastings, who is the catcher and manager of the local boys and who had worked hard to make them as fit as possible for the contest, was much pleased with the account the team gave of itself. Its field work was wonderful, McGillis catching some difficult flies. By its team-work the other fellows were kept between the bases and prevented from scoring. The boys were also very proud of the work of their pitcher, Lehman Crandall, on whose skill so much depended the measure of success they won. All in all it was the finest game of the season.

A large delegation of Pasadena Elks was present and enthusiastically rooted for Glendale. Next Sunday its team will be matched against the Glendale team at Pasadena and it is a safe prediction, after the exhibition yesterday, that there will be some strenuous practicing in the Crown City this week. Glendale's nine includes: Lehman Crandall, George Hastings, Howard McGillis, Jack Thomas, Joe Fortunato, Harry Moore, "Porky" Flint, Mr. Phillips and Robert Jensen.

There were no accidents and the player who suffered a dislocated elbow last Sunday in the game at Santa Monica was there to hurrah for Glendale.

METHODIST PROGRAM

SPEAKERS AT FIRST CHURCH SERVICES DURING ABSENCE OF REV. CHAS. H. SCOTT

Rev. Charles H. Scott, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, who is leaving Monday (today) for the east to spend the 30-day vacation granted him by the trustees, makes the following announcement of speakers who will occupy his pulpit during his absence:

August 24th, morning service—Rev. Thomas Burden of Tulare; evening service Rev. C. R. Norton.

August 31st, Rev. S. B. Warner, who has recently come to Glendale to make his home, will preach in the morning. In the evening Rev. Luther G. Reynolds will give an address illustrated with stereopticon views of the recent M. E. Centennial celebration at Columbus, Ohio, said to be the biggest thing in the way of a religious spectacle that has ever been staged anywhere in the world.

September 7th, Rev. J. A. Walton will preach in the morning. In the evening the choir will give a program of sacred music and Rev. E. Hoskyn will preside.

Sept. 14th, the former pastor of the church, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden will occupy the pulpit morning and evening and tell of his experiences in France. He has had a great many invitations from churches all over Southern California who knew he was coming, but has turned them all down to be here with his old friends for his first Sunday in Southern California.

September 21st, Mr. Scott will return to his pulpit and preach both morning and evening.

CELEBRATION OF FIFTEENTH BIRTHDAY

The birthday of Herbert Bruck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bruck of 1002 South Glendale avenue, was celebrated by his parents one evening last week with a very pretty dancing party at which the members of his class in High School and his Glendale relatives were entertained. The affair was given in Yeomen Hall on San Fernando Road and about forty were present. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the floral decorations, for which carnations were employed, and pink and white also featured the birthday cake bearing fifteen candles which was served with the party refreshments.

CORPORAL HOLMAN IN NEW YORK

Mrs. George T. Holman, of 104 N. Central avenue, is this morning in receipt of a telegram from her son, Corporal James Miller Holman, announcing his arrival in New York City. He has been with the Army of Occupation in Germany, and was mobilized with the 143d Field Artillery, but was sent ahead of his company and put into the First Division, which has been the last to leave Europe. Being a casual he has been able to get home a little ahead of his comrades and his mother is hoping he will be given his discharge there on the Atlantic Coast and be permitted to come home with the minimum of delay. He was in action at St. Mihiel, in the Argonne and one other big battle. Although fifty per cent. of his battery were wounded or killed, he miraculously escaped injury.

WORTH WHILE

SERVICES AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES FULL OF INTEREST TO ALL ATTENDING

There was a very fair attendance at all the services yesterday at Central Christian Church. The Sunday School was above the summer mark in numbers and all teachers and pupils seemed to get much out of the lessons. The morning sermon was on "Fulfilling the Law of Christ," and was an exposition of the 12th chapter of 1st Corinthians where Paul tells of the dependence of members of the human body on each other and draws the lessons that there should be equal dependence and co-operation by members of the body of Christ, His church. Bearing one another's burdens is fulfilling the law of Christ, Paul says, and the pastor proceeded to show the ways in which this can be done. He spoke not only of this, but of bearing the burdens of the church itself. If each one would do his share in sustaining the church's activities, all would prosper. God said: "Bring ye the tithes into the storehouse and prove me if I will not pour out such a blessing on you that you can not contain it." "If every member of this congregation would tithe his income," said the pastor. (Continued on Page 3)

HOME

Dear Glendale! when I ramble
Thy hills or meadows green,—
Or 'neath the shade of leafy tree
Survey some sylvan scene;
Watching the glistening glorious sun,
As it brightens all the way,
Fringing the hills with silver foam
Or hid by boulders grey,—
I ask myself, can any land
Thy varied charms excel
Or satisfy the heart's desire,
Like thee I love so well?

I've traveled far in other climes,
Where wondrous sights abound;
I've viewed the mighty cataract,
And trembled at its sound;
I've seen the snow-capped mountain
'Neath which volcanoes hide,—
A country's boasted show,—at once
Their terror and their pride,
I've felt the ice king's biting breath,
I've trod the torrid zone;
But found no spot as sweet as that I fondly call my own.

I've met strange peoples many hued,
Decked out in various guise;
But Glendale's men and maids surpass
All others in my eyes.
True as the needle to the North
My heart still yearns for those,
The brave, the fair, the good and true,
Whose emblem is the rose;
Then here's to Glendale's hills and dales,
From them no more to roam,
But sing my lays and end my days
At home,—my own dear home.

SLOW IN BOOSTING WONDERS

California has been disgracefully slow in taking advantage of its natural wonders to attract to this state the tourists of the world. But no longer will we be guilty of such negligence, for it is said that the "See-Lake Tahoe" association is planning a program which includes an item of $500,000 a year for ten years for publicity work.

This movement is not merely a "See-Tahoe-First" piece of propaganda, but the beauty of Tahoe is to be used as the pulling power to get the tourist into the other wonder spots of northern and central California.

The world is well acquainted with the marvelous activities of Switzerland and other European countries and their successes in attracting tourists.

Canada has maintained many of its national parks and monuments because of a consistent policy of publicity, of a constant advertising of her beauty spots.

The United States has been backward. We have not taken advantage of our natural resources in the way of scenery. Perhaps we have been too busy doing other things. But whatever the reason we are preparing to throw down the doors and open the eyes of the world to some of its most eloquent possessions.

FARMERS ARGUE GOD'S TIME VS. THE WILSON TIME

The following are fifteen arguments put up by the farmers against what they term, God's time versus Wilson time.

Farmers waste time instead of saving.
Lose one hour in the morning on account of the dew.
Hired help wants to quit at 6 o'clock.
Forced to carry new and old time.
Teams and men must work in the hottest part of day.
Can't change habit of farm animals—come up at usual time.
Entertainments scheduled on new time are too early for farmer's family.
School children have to start one hour earlier.
Stores and shops in country towns close too early for farmers.
Small town merchants must work extra hour.
Farmers work by sun, not by clock.
Must start one hour earlier to catch trains.
Cows must be milked one hour earlier where milk is shipped.
Chickens won't go to roost until usual time.
Increases convenience and efficiency of city folks at farmers' expense.

The vote by states showed that the rural districts are not the only interested parties in the daylight saving for there are many interests in the city as well that will be better served by the God given law which has ruled for ages.—Dixon Evening Telegraph.

THE BOY AND THE MAN

Boy, a word with you. The life of a man at forty will be what was in his heart at twenty-two. Your first duty in life is towards your afterself. So live—and this is not a sermon—that your afterself, the man you ought to be, may in time be possible.

Far away in the years, he is waiting his turn. His body, his brain, his soul, are in your boyish hands. He cannot help himself. What he shall be is up to you.

What will you leave to him?

Will it be a body unspoiled by lust or dissipation; a mind trained to think and act; a nervous system true as a dial in its response to the truth about you? Will you, boy, let him come as a man among men in his time?

Or will you throw away his inheritance before he has had the chance to touch it? Will you turn over to him a brain distorted, a mind diseased; a will untrained to action; a spinal cord grown through and through with the devil grass we call wild oats?

Will you let him come, taking your place, gaining through your experience, happy in your friendships, hallowed through your joys, building on them his own?

Or will you fling it all away, decreeing, wanton-like, that the man you might have been shall never be?

This is your problem in life—the problem vastly more important to you than any or all others. How will you meet it, as man or as a fool? It is your problem today and every day, and the hour of your choice is the crisis in your history. And, besides, there are the children of the man you are to be.—Exchange.

THE YANKS ON THE MARNE

Oh, the English and the Irish, and the 'owlin' Scotties, too,
The Canucks, Austrilees-uns, and the 'airy French poilu;
The only thing that bothered us, a year before we knew,
Was 'ow in 'ell the Yank'd look, an' wot in 'ell they'd do.

They 'adn't 'ad no tryin'; they didn't know the gime;
They 'adn't never marched it much; their shootin' was the sime;
An' the only thing that bothered us that day in lawst July
Was 'ow in 'ell the lin'd 'old if they should run aw'y.

The leggy, nosy new 'uns, just come across the sea!
We couldn't 'elp but wonder 'ow in 'ell their nerve'd be;
An' the only thing that bothered us in all our staggerin' ranks
Was wot in 'ell'd 'appen w'en the 'Uns'd 'it the Yanks.

My word! it 'appened sudden w'en the drive 'ad first begun;
We see the Yanks a'runnin'—Gaw Blimy, how they run!
But the only thing that bothered us that seen the chise begin
Was 'ow in 'ell to stop 'em 'fore they got into Berlin!

They didn't 'ave no tactics but the bloody manual;
They 'adn't learned no orders but "Ooray" and "Give 'em 'ell!"
But the only thing that bothered us about them leggy lads
Was 'ow in 'ell to get the chow to feed their Kamerads!

Oh, the English and the Irish, and the 'owlin' Scotties, too,
The Canucks, Austrilees-uns, and the 'airy French poilu;
The only thing that bothered us don't bother us no more—
It's only w'y in 'ell we didn't know the Yanks before.

Personals

Ben Bolen, wife and daughter, Beatrice, are at Hermosa Beach for a week's outing.

Miss Evangeline Quackenbush of 1119 Colorado street, who is quite ill of tonsillitis, has been confined to her bed for several days. She is convalescent however, and able to sit up a little.

Mrs. John P. Lampert, wife of the Chief of Police, has returned from Big Bear where she has been for several weeks and feels that she has been considerably benefited by the mountain air.

Mrs. Robert C. Goudie, Sr., of 458 West Maple, and her father, John Goss, and Miss Grace Goudie were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Pickett of Hollywood, Friday, at a four course luncheon given in honor of Mr. Goss.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower and daughter Ruth of 615 South Adams street spent the week-end at Hermosa as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans. They drove their new Chevrolet which they say gave a very good account of itself.

Miss Grace Carson, niece of Mrs. N. Maxwell Miller, of Thornycroft, has just returned from Piedmont, where she has been taking a course in fancy dancing under Ted Shawn and Ruth St. Denis at Woodland, their Piedmont home.

Mrs. W. D. Root will leave in a short time for Chicago to attend the fifty-year national convention of the W. C. T. U., to be held there September first and second, at which she will give an address on the prohibition movement in Japan.

A new dining room is being built at Thornycroft to accommodate the help. Mrs. Miller reports that the hospital has never had so heavy a patronage as has come to it this summer, and that hereafter no cases of tuberculosis will be taken.

Miss Jessie E. Patterson, daughter of B. E. Patterson and sister of Mrs. Charles Hiezmalchalch of 131 North Belmont street, arrived Saturday night from Salt Lake City, where she has lived the past ten years and will make her home in Glendale.

Lawrence Ellis, of Seattle, Wash., arrived this morning on the Lark, coming to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Sarah E. Ellis, which is to be held at Garrett Undertaking Parlor, Los Angeles, Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock. Service private.

Mrs. Harrison of 218 West Windsor Road, a new-comer in Glendale, states that she has a large number of copies of "The Mothers' Magazine," which she has read and which she would be glad to bestow upon some young mother who would find in them much valuable instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ayars, their children and Mrs. Ayars' mother spent last week at Hermosa, and their neighbors, Mrs. L. N. Hagood and children, were also there. Mr. Hagood joined them for the week-end and both families returned Sunday night.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles, their children, Marguerite, Ralph and Gilbert, and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Alston of 203 Chestnut street left Saturday on an auto and camping tour to the Mariposa Grove. They will go up by the inside route and return by the coast boulevards and will be gone ten days or two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker are spending a vacation in the Yosemite. They are expected home about the first of September. In their absence the Walker Jewelry Store is in charge of Mr. Redman, watchmaker and jeweler, who has been associated with Mr. Walker since the first of the year.

R. P. Jodon, of 224 South Louise, who has been hobbling around on crutches for three weeks past because of an injury to his leg, had hoped to be able to go to work today, but the doctor sentenced him to another week of idleness. He has a paying job in Fresno whenever he is able to go to work.

The wholesale seizure of eggs in storage in a number of large cities, more than two million dozen in all, has had a slight effect on the market here, lowering the wholesale price 5 cents a dozen. It is thought the price will go little if any lower as there is a real scarcity in this section of the country.

Mrs. Eva Cunningham and sons, Ralph and Glenn, returned home Saturday evening from Camp Bonita, San Gabriel Canyon, where they had been enjoying a week's outing. They were agreeably surprised at finding Mrs. T. G. Love and daughter Madeleine of 220 West Elk avenue and Miss Margaret La Com of 343 Oak street, there and enjoyed their company very much.

Will Richardson arrived at home Saturday. He left Coblenz, Germany, where he had been with the 3d Division Military Police for seven months, on July 15th. He came across, stopped at Camp Merritt, landed at the Presidio and received his discharge, all in exactly one month. He was discharged August 15th at 3 p. m. and left for home at 5 p. m. This was the quickest time from Germany we have yet heard of.

Miss Loraine Mitchell, one of the teachers in the Columbus Avenue School, and Miss Ivy Hunter, teacher in the Intermediate, are at Camp Baldy for a week's outing.

Miss Edith Tyler and her nieces, Hazel and Elsie Tyler, are now established in their new home at 623 N. Maryland. They formerly resided in what was known as the Charles Smith house at 362 Salem street, but when it was sold to A. J. Esterly and family, who now have possession, the Tylers had to find a new dwelling.

C. C. Buckley and family of 461 W. Harvard and Mrs. Parsonage of 327 Cameron Place motored to Venice Monday morning where they expect to enjoy the sea breezes for a week. While driving from the Buckley home to Cameron Place they were unfortunate enough to lose a leather grip containing considerable wearing apparel, which they hope to have returned to them soon.

slaves, but all are new men in Christ Jesus. Liberty is a Christ-like word. He is the only free man who finds his liberty in doing the will of Christ. But liberty does not mean the right of the individual to do as he pleases regardless of the rights of others; so-called individual rights are always subject to control of the law. The free man finds his liberty in the law.

Do you make a garden and then let it grow uncontrolled? How long before the weeds would choke it? You parents must have control in the home. Do you let your children follow their own appetites or their own desires without your control? Then you are a poor parent and have not the right conception of liberty. There are people who are willing to be controlled in their business and more or less in all their worldly affairs, but are not willing to submit to control in the church. This is not the true spirit of liberty. The great ship at sea is a thing of beauty and of power, but when you see it coming up out of the horizon you know that it sails on the surface of the ocean because it submits to control, because it is subject to a master. The bird belongs to the air, the fish to the water. Either taken from his element dies. A Christian out of his element is a dead man. "You are not your own for I have bought you with a price." The prodigal desired to be free and demanded that which he considered was his. He did not wish to be controlled; he longed to be free. "Take it," said his father, "you are free to go," and he went to a far country. Every step in a direction from his father's home wound a chain about him and he never found freedom until he returned to his father and submitted to his control.

In the home where the parent says "No" and the child says "You are right," is found the perfect freedom, the real liberty. The Christian sometimes says: "This is hard, must I do it?" No, you do not have to do it. You are at liberty to do otherwise, but this way is the Father's way and here is the perfect freedom; do this and every year will be a year of Jubilee.

PACIFYING MOTHER

Daughter—"Everett kissed me last night."
Mother (indignant,)—"That is outrageous. Did you sit on him for it?"
Daughter—"I did."

Fresno growers are producing more fruit this year than ever before in the history of the district.

tor, "the yearly result would be over $15,000, sufficient to do a great work for the kingdom."

At the evening sermon Rev. Cole spoke on "Pride and Humility," taking his text from Proverbs. There are many kinds of pride was the thought expressed, and all tend to lower our standard of living. We sometimes take pride in our faults and even in our humility. Self-depreciation is generally a manifestation of pride. The little child until it is taught differently by its parents is absolutely without pride. It has no color prejudice, but will take as much delight in playing with a negro or other colored child as with its little white neighbors. Jesus said, "Unless you humble yourselves as this little child you are not fit for the kingdom." True humility and self-respect go hand in hand. The greatest men are the humblest. No truly great man ever vaunts himself, but is humble as a little child. Instances were related by the speaker of great men in Christ he had known, wonderful teachers and preachers, who always had time to give the earnest inquirer after the truth no matter how he might be crowded with work. The whole thought of the sermon was that pride lowers the moral tone and spoils one's life, while true humility leads one into the kingdom.

The Endeavor services were interesting and instructive.

Announcement was made that the Workers' Cabinet of the Bible School would meet Wednesday evening at 7:00 just after the church supper, and that the "Live Cole" class would hold its monthly meeting, Thursday evening with Miss Bessie Jeter, 114 North Belmont.

SALVATION ARMY

The Salvation Army is an organization formed upon a quasi-military pattern, for the revival of religion among the masses. It was founded in England by the Methodist evangelist, William Booth, about 1865, under the name of the Christian Mission, the present name and organization being adopted about 1878. It has extended to the continent of Europe, to India, Australia and other British possessions, to the United States, South America and elsewhere. Its work is carried on by means of processions, street singing and preaching, and the like, under the direction of officers entitled generals, majors and captains. Both sexes participate in the services and direction of the body on equal terms. Besides its religious work, it engages in various reformatory and philanthropic enterprises. It has no formulated creed, but its doctrines bear a general resemblance to those common to all Protestant evangelical churches, and especially to those of Methodism.

STATE NEWS

(By United Press)
PACIFIC GROVE, Cal., Aug. 18.—The coming of the war has brought forcibly to the attention of the people of this country that the conditions confronting the incoming immigrants were not such as to make a homogeneous nation of this country said Henry K. North, executive officer for the State Commission of Immigration and Housing, speaking before the W. C. T. U. Congress of Reforms last Thursday. He briefly outlined the work of the commission. First—The bureau's work in adjusting complaints, cases of misunderstanding and even fraud against the immigrant. Second—Its work in cleaning up the agricultural labor camps throughout the state. Third—Its work in bettering housing conditions in the cities, along which line there is need for further work.

POPULAR SONGS AND WONDERFUL WALTZES

The records made for Columbia this month include "Beautiful Ohio" and "Till We Meet Again," two of the most popular songs in the United States today, played as waltzes by the Kalamuki Hawaiian Orchestra. These melodies lend themselves very well to the playing of this Hawaiian ensemble, and these records give a volume of tone hitherto unequalled in Hawaiian selections.

"The Music of Wedding Chimes," sung for Columbia by the Peerless Quartette, proves once again that well-known truth which about a million of our youths and maidens demonstrate afresh every year—that there is no other music to equal it. There are chiming bells throughout the accompaniment, but the singing is the most important part in this selection, and it is not what is known

HOW COULD HE?

"I say, Sandy," said Jock, handing back his friend's photograph, "when ye had those photos taken, why didna ye smile?"

"And those pictures costing me two dollars a dozen!" replied Sandy. "Are ye crazy, mon?"

COMMUNITY PROPERTY LAW

In view of the discussion now going on with reference to the so-called Community Property Law, which appears to be in a muddle, the following brief statement, which introduces an extended article in California Taxpayers' Journal, is of interest. It sets forth the points clearly in a nut-shell style:

"The club women of California desired, at the 1919 legislature, to have laws enacted giving the wife the ownership of one-half of all community property, and giving her the right to dispose of the same by will; also giving the husband or wife of an insane person power to sell community property when necessary. They succeeded in having four bills passed to accomplish these results.

"Senate Bill 680 gave the desired relief to the spouse of an insane person and was approved by the governor, and is now the law.

"Assembly Bill 698 gave the wife an equal ownership with her husband in the community property, and Assembly Bill 697 provided procedure by which it might be determined by the court whether or not the wife left a will. Both of these bills were vetoed by the governor. Thus the attempt to give the wife ownership of one-half of the community property failed, and her rights are no greater than they were before.

"Senate Bill 471 provided the method by which the wife might dispose of her half of the community property by will. The governor signed this bill, but it was delayed by referendum petition, and must be voted upon by the people at the general election in 1920. This bill does not appear to be effective because the wife cannot dispose of property which she does not possess, but a discussion of the construction to be placed upon a statute is necessarily one to be maintained by members of the bar."

A STRAIN

Poultrymen who have any idea of building up a flock of any standard variety of fowls find that the term strain has a wonderful attraction to those who contemplate starting in on the poultry business. "Whose strain is this?" is often one of the first questions asked by a buyer who has become obsessed with the idea that he wants to "go into the chicken business," and it is coming to have a strong influence in deciding purchasers really more than is often realized.

Whatever breed you may take a fancy to, get good stock of a proven strain and then breed carefully and improve on what you started with by selecting the best and breeding from them only.

It is wonderful what improvement can be made internally and externally by careful selection in your work with animals. Take all of the egg laying contests and you will find that different breeds win in every contest, and by tracing up the winner's history you will find that the breeders of the birds have been careful, conscientious strain breeders.

But, remember, it is very largely in the care of the fowls as to whether they are heavy producers or not. Proper feed, cleanliness and exercise will give a hen a chance to show her hereditary qualities to the fullest extent.

If good grain is put into a good mill good flour comes out, and so with the animal machinery. Too little feed of a poor quality gives few eggs.—Pacific Poultrycraft.

SUNLAND

A very enjoyable picnic was held at Monte Vista Park, Sunland, Wednesday, August 6th. After partaking of a bountiful feast, under the Giant Oaks, the party drove back to Mr.
and Mrs. Frank Fenton's home, 1310 Linda street, South Pasadena, where the evening was spent with music.
The house was beautifully decorated with roses and dahlias. Refreshments were served. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Bogart and sister of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Stedman
and Mrs. Mears of Long Beach, Mrs.
Stanford and daughter of Pasadena,
Mrs. Viola Davis of Ocean Park, Mrs.
Lillian Snyder of Los Angeles, Mrs.
Harry Brownall and daughter, Mrs.
Edyth Hartline, of Pasadena, also Mrs. Eda K. Ohland, who recently returned from a year's work in France.

Mrs. H. Rice will give a dance at the Oak Grove Pavilion Wednesday evening in honor of her husband's birthday.

George Huse was transacting business in Los Angeles Thursday.

Miss Gladys Huse is taking a two-weeks' vacation from "The Sawyers" School of Secretaries, where she has been attending school for the past six months. She will spend her vacation at her home in Sunland and with friends at Long Beach.

Mr. Seigler spent Thursday in the city.

The friends of Paul Lancaster will be glad to learn he is slowly improving from his recent illness.

The cannery has resumed work this week canning peaches. A full force of help is getting the work done rapidly.

Eustace Rowley has received his discharge from the navy and is at the home of his parents in Glendale.

Nearly all Sunland went to the beach to see the fleet come in.

The County Forester, S. J. Flint-ham, is having quite a lot of work done in the Monte Vista Park, which makes it more attractive for the many picnic parties who enjoy the park daily.

Milk has taken another raise, now selling for 15 cents a quart. With the high cost of feed it can not be handled for less.

The Misses Ethel and Mildred Adams returned Tuesday from a two-weeks' visit with their grandmother
and aunts at Riverside.

Mrs. Chas. Southard was shopping in Los Angeles Thursday.

LA CRESCENTA

been resting at Colorado Springs, but will return to Crescenta next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cozzoleno have gone to Idylwild for a ten-day vacation.

roof of a barn in Eagle Rock and was seriously injured, is resting well and progressing toward recovery at Thornycroft.

month at Colorado Springs.

tage on Michigan avenue to Mrs. Geo.
Warwick.

ond story addition to his garage.

Those little green two-bit savers
do not forget them today, tomorrow, nor any tomorrow. In 1923 you will be glad you invested your stray quarters.

Picture show next Friday, "Jack and Jill," with Jack Pickford and Louise Huff. Things are dead serious with Jack. Jill does not hide the fact that she loves him any more than she hides the fact that she will not marry him unless he makes a stake. Although he is a boxer of medium class, he has lots of "good stuff" in his makeup. Added to this is a determination to marry Jill and an unlimited amount of conceit. The two make a wonderful combination that makes Jack equal to all occasions. He boxes the world's lightweight champion in a frame-up and fights so hard that he actually delivers a knockout. The gang tell him:
"It's flowers and soft music for him,
and kid, you'd better beat it before the cops get on your trail." Jack goes west and finds he jumped from the frying pan into the fire. But he meets every development in such a square, flat-footed, face-to-face manner that he graduates from the role of prize fighter to a substantial married citizen.

TUJUNGA

Mrs. Chas. Thornton and brother
William from the Los Angeles Water Company were guests of Mrs. S. M.
Wood at her home, "Sunny Crest," on Sunset boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs of Stephens Way entertained Mr. Jacobs' sister-in-law, Mrs. G. W. Jacobs, and his sister, Mrs. John Ingham, from Garden Grove. They came to congratulate Lieut. Howard Smithies, a son of Mrs. Jacobs, on his return from overseas. Lieut. Smithies will remain for a visit with his parents in Tujunga for a few weeks.

Dr. Newman, wife and son have been occupying their house on Marshall street the past week while the doctor has a short vacation.

Mr. Norman, who formerly lived here and was a partner of Mr. Fisher, was a caller on Thursday. Mr.
Norman is now living at Moor Park
and conducting a grocery and dry goods store. He likes his present home very much. His wife and children also agree with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas are again at their home on Monte Vista Blvd. and hope to stay a month or two.

Miss Lucy Lee of Pine street left on Friday for Ashland, Ore., to spend the fall and winter, hoping to be in better health in the more moist climate.

Mary and Cenevieve Leckie have been entered at the Maud Booth
school in Los Angeles for the coming year, leaving last week to begin their work.

turned to Long Beach on Sunday.

Beach were callers on Tuesday.

Mrs. Al Richardson, Mrs. Cora Lin-
berry, Miss Myra Osgood, Mrs. Gertrude Ludke and Mrs. D. C. Dean motored to San Pedro on Thursday
to get a glimpse of the fleet as well as to enjoy a day's outing at sea level. It goes without saying that they enjoyed the trip, for a day's pleasure is restful after weeks of work, as well as beneficial.

Mrs. Charles Richardson, who went to Redondo Beach two weeks ago, has been very ill, and will not return here for a time owing to conditions of her heart.

Percy De Wello has returned from the navy and will again be one of his army khaki and don the garments

LIVING CONDITIONS IMPROVED

(By United Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—The departure of the saloon has already manifested itself by improved living conditions in a number of cases, a lessening of arrests and a decimation of the former number of family and neighborhood quarrels probation officers had to settle—but there is still much to be done to improve conditions, William J. Nicholl, chief adult probation officer of San Francisco,
told the United Press today.

"Although the saloons are gone,
there are still a number of old timers showing up in police courts, using wood alcohol as a basis for concocting wired drinks, and vene cologne and bayrum are used as a beverage with a kick," said Nicholl. "Then there is the drug addict, a class into which a number of former steady drunkards are drifting in search of stimulant.
"The police are diligently rounding up both classes, but a prison sentence
does not help these men and women.
What they need is medical treatment —treatment that will overcome their craving for stimulant.

"Some state institution or farm
should be established where proper and lasting treatment would be given this unfortunate class of offenders who seem to be unable to help themselves. There are hospitals for the treatment of dogs and cats, but none for the treatment of the drunk and drug habit. The sending to prison of these addicts is of no use as nothing is done for them there to keep their minds away from the craving and disease of the drug and drink. If these people had a contagious disease like small-pox, every attention would be given them. At the present time, the only place they can be sent for treatment is the state insane hospitals—where they worry the mildly insane patients.

"In reality these people are suffering from disease—a mental disease
perhaps—but none the less contagious, especially at this time when men and women are looking around for something to take the place of liquor.
An institution to cure them is the only solution of what may become a still more serious problem."

MULTUM IN PARVO

"I can't do the family washin', ma'am," said the new girl.

"Why not, pray?" asked the lady of the house.

"The family's too large, ma'am."

"Why, there's only my husband and myself in the family."

"Yes, ma'am; but look at the size of youse!"

OH, HAPPY DAY!

"Has you made all arrangements
fo' your marriage, Mandy?"

"Well, not quite all, Dinah. I've got to buy a trooso, an' rent a house,
an' get mah husband a job, an' buy him a good suit o' close an' get some reg'lar washin' work to do. An'
when them's done Ah kin name the happy day."

Mrs. Thelma Doan, Seattle, was the first woman to be convicted in the U.
S. District Court on a moonshining charge. She was given six months and a $500 fine.

LA CANADA

The automobile of B. F. Marr, which was considerably damaged in a collision with another auto August 3d, and which was taken to the La Canada Garage, is now in perfect running order and every one is thankful that all its occupants escaped serious injury, though Mrs. Ashworthy's finger was scratched.

The Poothill Orchestra is making steady progress and the first anniversary of its organization will be celebrated this month.

Work has started on a new cottage which E. G. Metcalf is building.

Young people of La Canada have enjoyed several outings at Brookside Park the past week where the swimming pools and tennis courts were the chief attractions.

The Van de Grift family is preparing to return to La Canada when school reopens.

WONDERFUL MACHINES.

tions and finally to the packers. It is a fascinating sight and one who cares to see it should start at the beginning with the bottle-washing machine, which is primarily a huge cogged wheel upon which is a sort of belt
made of wooden slabs about five feet in length linked together. These are perforated at intervals, the holes being made to fit the bottles. At the far side of the wheel stands a boy who places the bottles upside down in each slab or rack. As the wheel revolves, bottle brushes dripping with water are thrust upward into the bottles washing them thoroughly, then are withdrawn automatically. As the bottles move forward still upside down the water drains out. The journey over the top of the wheel reverses their position and by the time they have reached the level at which they started they are right side up.
On this side are electric light bulbs
below the bottles to illuminate them
and here a boy is placed whose business it is to watch the bottles and see that all are clean. Should there be any not up to the standard he removes them. At a certain point the reversed bottles reach an angle where they are caught by a rack which au-tomatically shoves them onto the trolley which carries them to the machines which fill them. Each bottle is taken to its separate seat on a kind of merry-go-round and each seat with its bottle passenger is elevated to the mouth of a faucet which automatically opens and discharges the requisite amount of fruit-syrup and automatically closes. The passenger bottle is then lowered and making a half circuit of the machine is carried by the trolley to the next machine
where the process is repeated, only this time it is pure carbonated water sufficient to fill the bottle that is poured in from the faucets. The water and the syrup are fed to these machines through pipes from tanks
above and that is another story.

The filled bottles are hustled along by the trolley to the capping machine which covers them faster than a good shingler can drive nails. In receiving this ministration the bottles travel another half circle around the machine which brings them to the final machine where labels are flapped onto them with incredible speed and then the trolley passes them along to a little window facing the shipping room where it dumps
them and two packers gather them
in and place them in wooden cases which hold twenty-four bottles each.
The most astonishing thing after the capacity of the machinery has been realized is that only seven men are required below to operate it and
of these three are packers.

Upstairs one man is kept constantly busy making the syrups of which sugar is the leading ingredient. His work room is like a laboratory in its immaculate whiteness and there is a reason. "Purity" is the slogan of the Sierra Beverage Manufacturers and they insist not only on outward cleanliness but the cane sugar they use, which—as we have all had a chance to discover—is none too clean goes through several processes of filtering. In the first of the fifty-gallon tanks is a wire screen about 14 inches from the bottom and on top of this screen a heavy cotton flannel cloth through which the syrup must percolate before it passes to a crock where it is filtered again and flows on to a third crock. Its density is determined by a "Baum thermometer," used by confectioners and others who handle syrups. Vast quantities of this liquid sweetness are employed.
On the afternoon the reporter visited the plant the draft on the stock was 78 gallons in two hours.

It is a big and rapidly growing business which could not be carried on with profit were it not for the ingenious machinery which has supplanted
the hand labor that would otherwise be required, and which carries out the formula given it with uniformity and perfection. While it sulked some during the period of adjustment following installation there were no real strikes and no lockouts.
